WELFARE OF CHILD

Program of Approaching Conference Prepared by Executive Committee.

NOTABLE SPEAKERS COMING

Sectional Gatherings to Be Held in Addition to Principal Meetings.

Preparation of a tentative program for the special conference on Conser-vation of Child Life, to be held in this city on May 22 to 25, was comcommittee, held yesterday in the as-sembly room of the State Board of Education at the Capitol. While the program as arranged is subject to minor changes, it is assured that it will be perhaps the most important meeting in the interest of child welfare ever held in the South. Noted speakers from all over the country present, and the subject in all its aspects will be discussed by people who know just what they are talking General meetings are to be held in the City Auditorium, but a great deal of the business of the conference will e transacted in sectional meetings for consideration of special features of work among children. In this way those interested in any portion of the subject may attend that part.

Those in Charge. Those present at yesterday's meeting of the executive committee were Dr. Roy K. Flannagan, presiding; Rev J. T. Mastin, Dr. E. C. Levy, Rev. A. L. Phillips, C. B. Cooke, Miss Ada Van Stone Harris, Miss Ruth Anderson, Dr J. A. C. Chandler, Miss Hattle Selleers Christian and Mr. Saunders:

was decided, in view of the short time before the date set for the con-ference, that it would be impossible to have as creditable exhibits of child welhave ascreditable exhibits of this fare work as the importance of this feature warrants, and therefore this aspect of the conference was deferred, with the idea that it would be taken up again in the autumn, perhaps at the State Fair. However, all commit-tees on exhibits were continued, and such exhibits as may be gathered by hem will be displayed as conspicuousby as possible, so that this feature may not be entirely lost to the conference.

The program arranged, which speaks, it was generally believed, elo-quently of the magnitude of the topics and of the ability of the men and wo-men who will discuss it, is as follows:

THIS SIMPLE LOTION GREAT AID TO BEAUTY

"The nearest approach to the fountain of youth," writes Mrs. Mae Martyn, in the Los Angeles Herald, "is spurmax—beautifying and inexpensive. This made into a face lotion is marvelous for clearing, beautifying and preserving the complexion.

"Any woman can make this lotion by getting four ounces spurmax from the druggist, dissolving in a haif-pint hot water and adding two teaspoonfuls glycerine. This gently massaged into the skin becomes invisible, does not rub off easily like powder, and for a natural aid to beauty cannot be equaled.

This spurmax lotion is far superior

"This spurmax lotton is far superior to powders, cosmetics or skin foods, and quickly corrects a rough, oily, shiny, sallow or lifeless condition, siving the complexion a smooth, satiny tone. Once you try it, you will have no further use for face powder."
